

Ligali Forum
and Networking Evening
Sunday 25th April 04, 6pm – 8pm
@ The Market Bar

We would like to invite you the Ligali Forum and Networking Evening on Sunday 25th April 2004, 6pm – 8pm @ The Market Bar, 1-2 Crutched Friars, London, EC3N 2HT.

Please arrive early for a prompt 6pm start.

The evening will commence with a solution-orientated discussion and debate session around the following themes;

- 'What do you want from a community radio station?' *
- 'The Trouble with the BBC is...' *

This will be followed by a networking session allowing likeminded individuals and organisations from different background and with various skills to form essential and progressive allegiances with others with an interest in community empowerment.

Please feel free to bring any promotional literature relating to your respective organisations, event and/or business.

* Please note that while anonymity of contributors to the debate will always be maintained, the views expressed will impact future Ligali initiatives in a bid to ensure that talk becomes and informs action.

For further information, email mail@ligali.org or call 020 8986 1984/ 07956 973 259

Timetable

- 5.30 Doors Open
- 6.00 – 7.00 Debate and Discussion Forum: 'What do you want from a community radio station?' and 'The Trouble with the BBC is...'
- 7.00 – 8.00 Networking session

Getting There...

How to get to The Market Bar:

- 1-2 Crutched Friars, London, EC3
- Tube: Aldgate Station (Metropolitan Line)
- Train: Fenchurch Street Station
- Parking: In roads surrounding the venue

